2. Project Chairperson:	Lion Indra De Silva
3. Date and Time of the Project conducted	20 th October 2024 10am
4. Venue	Panaluwa
5. Brief description of the Project	In Panaluwa Village, recent flooding has severely impacted the lives, displacing families and disrupting access to food and clean water. Many victims are facing dire food shortages as floodwaters have damaged homes and farmland. As immediate relief, it is crucial to provide essential dry rations to affected families to ensure their survival and well-being during this difficult time. This project will support 25 flood-affected families. The project provided dry rations that consist of basic food items essential for survival and nourishment, including Rice, Dhal, Big Onion, Soya Meat and Panadol. These families were identified by Grama Niladhari and Army officers of Panaluwa Army camp.
