5. Brief description of the Project	The Lions Club of Sri Jayawardenapura Pearl organized an entertainment event for the kids at the Mentally Disordered Children's Home in Moratuwa to promote inclusivity and joy. Through participatory games, a shared dinner, and clothing, the event sought to give the kids a day of joy, engagement, and connection while fostering lasting memories. Lions Rajitha, Indra, Kumari, and Mihiri all supported the occasion. Two committed volunteers helped plan and lead the activities, making sure the kids were encouraged and involved the entire time. It created a joyful and inclusive atmosphere for the children, helping them feel loved and celebrated. This initiative highlights the importance of fostering meaningful connections and promoting emotional well-being for children with special needs.
