The real meaning of Christmas is not the celebration of Christ's birth, it was the message he brought entire world. Therefore while enjoying Christmas we have to be concerned on another group of people who are not fortunate as us.

Lion Ubesinghe and lion lady Rita donated some essential consumable items to a pregnant mother. School books were given to the children in the same family

One child was provided with a musical instrument in another family.

Some families were provided with lunch parcels also on the Christmas day and some were given dry rations
