1. Introduction

On 23rd November 2025, the Lions Club of Colombo Royalty, in collaboration with the KDU Hospital Blood Bank, successfully conducted a blood donation camp at Bodhirajaramaya, Panagoda. The camp aimed to support the national blood supply and promote the importance of voluntary blood donation in the community.

2. Objectives

- To collect blood donations for medical use through community participation.
- To raise awareness about the importance of regular blood donation.
- To foster partnerships with healthcare institutions for ongoing community service.

3. Participation and Support

- Donors: Approximately 100 individuals
- Partner: KDU Hospital Blood Bank
- Special Guests and Staff: Hospital staff and invitees attended and supported the event.

4. Hospitality and Refreshments

As a gesture of appreciation, breakfast and lunch were provided to hospital staff, invitees, and event participants.

Item	Cost (LKR)
Breakfast & Lunch for Invitees and Staff	67,160
Total Cost	67,160

5. Outcome and Impact

The event was a great success with strong community participation. The blood collected during the camp will help save lives and provide crucial support to hospitals. The provision of meals contributed to the smooth operation and comfort of guests and staff, enhancing the overall experience.

6. Acknowledgements

The Lions Club of Colombo Royalty extends sincere gratitude to:

- KDU Hospital Blood Bank for their collaboration and medical support.
- Lion Thushari Disanayake, Project Chairperson, for her exceptional leadership and organization.
- All donors, volunteers, and attendees for their contributions and presence.

7. Conclusion

The blood donation camp demonstrated the Lions Club of Colombo Royalty's ongoing dedication to community service and public health. Through compassion, coordination, and collaboration, the project made a meaningful impact and reinforced the spirit of giving.
