1. Introduction

In celebration of World Children’s Day, the Lions Club of Colombo Royalty organized a meaningful and inclusive event for the children of SMILE N WIN Home, who are affected by autism. The event was held at the Kadawatha Pradeshiya Sabha on 5th November 2024, with the objective of honoring and uplifting these children while also supporting their families and teachers.

2. Objectives

- To celebrate World Children’s Day by recognizing and supporting differently-abled children.
- To provide a joyful and inclusive environment for children with autism.
- To express gratitude and encouragement to parents, caregivers, and educators.
- To promote awareness and compassion within the community.

3. Event Highlights

- Guests: Children from SMILE N WIN Home, their parents, teachers, and Lions members
- Chief Guest: Lion Dr. Susitha Senarathne, 2nd Vice District Governor (PMJF, PMAF)
- Venue: Kadawatha Pradeshiya Sabha
- Activities: Celebrations, fellowship, and distribution of refreshments

4. Contributions and Hospitality

All attendees—including the children, their parents, and teachers—were provided with meals and refreshments throughout the day. The club ensured a comfortable and enjoyable experience for everyone present.
