1. Project Overview

On the auspicious Poya Day of October 17, 2024, the Lions Club of Colombo Royalty, under the leadership of Lion Rohan Samaradivakara, successfully organized a spiritually enriching Dharma Desana at the Bellanwila Rajamaha Viharaya. The event was well-attended by members of the public who gathered at the sacred temple premises for a morning of reflection, learning, and community bonding.

2. Objectives

- To promote spiritual development and moral reflection in the community.
- To commemorate Poya Day with a meaningful religious program.
- To reinforce the Lions Club’s support of Buddhist values and community harmony.
- To foster mindfulness, compassion, and ethical living through the teachings of the Buddha.

3. Event Highlights

- A renowned Buddhist monk delivered a deeply insightful Dharma Desana, emphasizing the relevance of Buddhist teachings in modern life.
- The program encouraged open dialogue, reflection, and community engagement.
- Religious publications were distributed to attendees to further their understanding and spiritual growth.
- The atmosphere was serene and respectful, aligning with the sacredness of Poya Day.

4. Community Impact

- Enhanced spiritual awareness and appreciation for Buddhist teachings among attendees.
- Strengthened the community’s connection to the temple and to each other.
- Promoted peace, mindfulness, and compassion—values that extend beyond religious practice and into daily life.
- Elevated the Lions Club’s presence as a socially and spiritually engaged service organization.
