“School Stationery Donation for Needy Children”

Date: December 25, 2024

Location: Woodland Ground, Kohuwala

Project Chairperson: Lion Rohan Samaradivakara

1. Project Overview

On December 25, 2024, in celebration of the spirit of Christmas and service, the Lions Club of Colombo Royalty organized a large-scale school stationery donation program at Woodland Ground, Kohuwala. The project, led by Lion Rohan Samaradivakara, was dedicated to supporting 100 schoolchildren from financially challenged families in the local area.

The initiative aimed to alleviate the economic burden on parents struggling to afford essential educational materials, ensuring that children could begin or continue their schooling equipped and motivated. The project embodied the Lions Club’s commitment to education, youth empowerment, and community service.

2. Special Guests

The event was honored by the presence of 1st Vice District Governor Lion Mahesh Boralugoda and Lady Lion Sunethra Boralugoda, whose participation underscored the importance of this cause and the value of collaborative community efforts.

3. Items Donated

Each child received a comprehensive package of school supplies, which included:

- Single Rule Exercise Books (200 pages) – 600 units
- Square Rule Exercise Books (160 pages) – 600 units
